

The Royal London Hospital Visit Friday 6th June 1-3pm

Barts Health NHS Trust is the largest NHS Trust in the UK serving a population of 2.5 million in east London and beyond. Home to London's air ambulance, the Royal London Hospital is one of the capital's leading trauma and emergency care centres.

You are invited to visit the Royal London Hospital on Friday 6th June. The visit will include a site tour of key trauma and orthopaedic areas, with an opportunity to meet senior nursing staff and listen to them talk about their role within a major trauma centre.

Visits will commence at 1pm and those attending are asked to report to the main entrance of the hospital. Directions can be found below.

Please note the visit is restricted to ten people to support the privacy and dignity of our patients and their families so please sign up as soon as possible if you are interested in joining the visit.

Should you wish to learn more about the visit, please contact kathy.murphy@bartshealth.nhs.uk

Directions

The address for the Royal London is Whitechapel Road, London E1 1BB and you can plan your journey using the Transport for London journey planner.

