

Literature search techniques session

Friday, 06 June 2014

15th EFORT Congress
London

Literature Search Techniques in Orthopaedics and Traumatology

Friday 06 June 2014

09:00 – 10:30

Room: Quick Comm

Pubmed & Google

Dr. Fatih Kucukdurmaz

Research Scholar - Rothman Institute, Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, USA

Assistant Professor - Bezmialem Vakif University, Istanbul, Turkey

Pubmed

- Importance of signing in / my Pubmed
- Managing filters
- Advanced search
- Limits
- Managing personal collections
- Filtering your search
- Bookshelf

Google & Google Scholar

- Tips and tricks of using the google search engine effectively
- How to find the best evidence quickly
- How to identify most relevant articles for a comprehensive review
- Boolean logic
- Punctuation marks that make search easier
- Site and file type filtering

info

www.efort.org/literature-search-techniques

Literature search techniques session

Friday, 06 June 2014

15th EFORT Congress
London

Cochrane & Other Database Search Engines

Mr. Mohamed Sukeik, MD MRCSEd PGA

Specialist Registrar in Trauma & Orthopaedics - The Royal London Hospital, London, United Kingdom

- The Cochrane Database: Systematic reviews of randomised controlled trials
- EMBASE: Drugs and pharmacology
- CINAHL: Nursing and allied health disciplines
- AMED: Allied and complementary medicine
- BNI: British nursing index
- HEALTH BUSINESS ELITE: Health care administration and health care institution management
- HMIC: The Health Management Information Consortium database
- PsycINFO: Psychology and allied fields

