

Marko Ostojić

Orthopedic and Trauma surgeon working in Traumatology Department in University Hospital “Sestre Milosrdnice” in Zagreb, Croatia, and Osteon Orthopaedic and Trauma Clinic in Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina. Fields of interest are hip and knee arthroplasty, sports knee reconstruction, complex trauma and orthobiologics.

Past President of FORTE (Federation of Orthopaedic and Traumatology Trainees in Europe). Secretary general of AOTSBiH (Association of Orthopaedic and Traumatology Surgeons in Bosnia and Herzegovina), ESSKA (European Society of Sports Traumatology, Knee Surgery & Arthroscopy) and EFORT (European Federation of National Associations of Orthopaedics and Traumatology). Chair of Basic Science Committee of ESSKA. Member of ESSKA ORBIT initiative. Member of Basic Research Group of EFORT.

Obtained PhD degree in 2015 titled “Expression of iNOS and NF-κB in synovial membrane of patients with osteoarthritis”. From 2015 to 2017 attended postgraduate studies for sports physician organized by International Olympic Committee and received the IOC Diploma in 2017 in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Works as a team physician for HSK Zrinjski football team. Completed ESSKA FC Chelsea sports medicine fellowship.

Speaks Croatian, English and Spanish languages.